PACKETS.

R. G. HENRY, CAPT. J. R. GANDALL,
H. MATHER, " A. C. SCOVILLE,
FASHION, " E. K. SCOVILLE,

The Comstock Packets on the Champlain Canal will commence their regular trips in the month of June. The packet STEELEN, TROY, will run between WHITE-HORNED, and TROY, forming two Daily Lines during the present season. They will connect with the Champlain Canal at Burlington, and with the Steamboats on Lake Champlain, a continuous line to the Canada Gaspe.

The Packets will be manned by experienced Captains and hands. They are now fully furnished. The tables will be served with care, and every effort made to give satisfaction to the traveling public.

N. R. Look for Boats, R. C. HENRY, in MANNER and FASHION. P. COMSTOCK, Agent, April 21, 1847.
